1. Forwarded as Attachment A are copies of the June 1962 press reviews based on the Soviet press of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

2. The Latvian émigré press for the period June 1962 contained the following news item regarding Latvian activities in Scandinavia:

"The Socialist International in Oslo, Norway, adopted a resolution asking for freedom and self-determination for nations. Latvian Social-Democrats were represented at this conference by Dr. Bruno Kalnins from Sweden. At this conference participated delegates from 25 countries. Kalnins delivered a lecture on the de-Stalinization process in the Soviet Union and its eventual influence in the future."
